

The Atelier Standard & The Capstone

Who you are now — and the work that proves it

Learning Objectives

- Understand what the Amber certification represents and the standard it binds you to
- Present yourself, your work, and your prices with quiet authority
- Conduct yourself by the ethics of the house
- Complete the capstone that earns your certification

The difference between a certificate and an initiation

Most courses end by handing you a certificate. Amber ends by asking you to become something. A certificate says you attended. The Amber Atelier credential says you have been initiated into a standard — that you carry the name of a house, and that your conduct in the world reflects upon it.

You did not take a course. You entered a house. From today, when you work, Amber works through you.

The ethics of the house

- Treats conditions, never complexions. You will never trade on a client's insecurity about her natural colour.
- Promises only what is true. No miracles, no false timelines, no selling of hope you cannot deliver.
- Knows the edge of her practice. She refers what is medical without ego.
- Honours every tradition she practises. She names the homeland of every technique.
- Never stops learning. The five questions. The lifelong framework.

Carrying yourself — the professional identity

- Pricing with confidence. State your price as a fact, without apology and without flinching.
- Building your portfolio. Your documented work is the proof of your skill the world can see.
- Your first clients. You do not chase clients — you do work good enough that the work speaks.
- Presence and the luxury touch. How you greet, how you listen, how you hold a room.

The Capstone — the work that earns the name

To receive the Amber Atelier Foundation Certificate in Skin Science & Facial Artistry, you will complete a capstone that draws on everything — all fifteen modules, woven into one body of work.

The Capstone · The Living Canvas

What you will submit

A complete portfolio demonstrating mastery across the whole course:

- The Client Case Study — a full written study of Priya: skin assessment, condition identification, treatment plan, outcome. 500–700 words.
- The Skincare Prescription — a complete, professionally formatted AM/PM routine, across budget tiers, with seasonal notes.
- The Practical Submission — photographic documentation of a complete facial, before and after, with written annotation.
- The Written Examination — ten questions drawn from across all fifteen modules. Sixty minutes.
- The Future Brief — your one-page evaluation of an emerging ingredient or technology, using the five questions.
- The Reflection — 200 words: what you know now that you did not know before.

25%

Knowledge

Accuracy of theory across the written exam and case study.

30%

Application

Quality of practical execution in the facial submission.

25%

Analysis

Depth of the case study — causes, not just symptoms.

20%

Communication

Clarity, professionalism, and the Amber voice in all written work.

The capstone is moderated by Amber Atelier faculty. A pass requires 75% or above. Those who do not yet meet the standard are guided, and given one opportunity to resubmit.

You arrived knowing nothing of the living canvas.

You leave able to read it, tend it, and honour it — rooted in India, fluent in the world, ready for the future.

Never the poetry without the proof.

Never the proof without the poetry.

Final Activity · The Capstone Portfolio

Assemble and submit your complete capstone portfolio — case study, prescription, practical submission, written examination, future brief, and reflection. When it is accepted, you are no longer a student of the Atelier. You are a practitioner of the house.
